Township Exhibitors Win High County Fair Awards

Local farmers won countless awards in the horticultural and agriculture competition and the list of prize winners in the amateur horticultural division read like a directory of the township.

Undoubtedly the most outstanding organization from the township from the standpoint of prize winners was the Mission San Jose 4-H Club whose members were awarded nearly all of the trophies in the 4-H Club agriculture competition.

The fair, which has been ranked as bigger and better than ever, will close at the completion of the evening show on Saturday.

AMERICAN FOREST PRODUCTS COMPANY BUYS NEWARK MILL

One of the largest lumbering concerns on the West Coast, The American Forest Products Corporation, has taken over the ownership and operation of the Newark Mill and Lumber Company and begun expanding the plant to become a distribution center for the entire bay area.

The corporation, which has its main office in San Francisco, operates throughout California, Oregon and Arizona. It deals principally in lumber and lumber products, such as molding, sash, doors and plywood.

The local plant will be operated as a wholesale distribution center but will do some custom milling of redwood, pine and fir.

The company is a subsidiary of the American Box Corporation and has been a leader in its field for the past 35 years.

C. P. Eddie of Pleasanton, who is in charge of all retail lumber yards operated by the company, has been assigned here for the present time as manager of this wholesale unit.

Assisting in the operation of the local plant is Ralph Alexander, credit manager, who recently moved into a residence on Cherry Road in Newark, and Max Stone, one of the former owners, who has been retained as plant superintendent.

Alexander said this week that the plant will employ approximately 25 persons during its beginning operations.

TENTH DISTRICT TO MEET IN NILES

The Memorial Building in Niles is to be the meeting place for members of the Tenth District of the American Legion and Auxiliary on July 18 at 8:15 p.m. Besides organizational business, reports from representatives who attended the recent Girls' State session in Sacramento will be on the agenda, according to Mrs. Beryl Wood, district president. Mrs. Larry Snelson, chairman of Girl State affairs for the Department of California, has been invited as guest of honor.

John D. Home, candidate for the office of American Legion Commander, Department of California, will address the Legion members. Washington Township Post No. 195 will be hosts to the delegates.

Home has been a member of the American Legion since 1924. He was commander of Hollywood Post No. 43 in 1929, member and chairman of ways and means committee of Los Angeles County Council for seven years, and department chairman of the veterans home and farm committee from 1949 to 1951.

During the evening, Auxiliary members are to join the Legionnaires to hear Miss Marga Sveilis give her talk, "Behind the Iron Curtain." Miss Sveilis is a displaced person from Latavia and knows from experience some of the conditions and events which have been hidden from the free world.

Ladies of the Auxiliary units from Niles and from Pleasanton are hostesses and have promised an enjoyable evening.

SUSPENDS MEETINGS

The next meeting will be held on Tuesday, September 11, at Roethlin's Cafe.

OXBORROW NAMED MISSION PRINCIPAL

Oxborrow is a graduate of the University of Nevada with a Bachelor of Science degree.

He has been instructing in elementary and high schools in Nevada and California for the past 14 years. He served as head of the agriculture department at Washington Union High School for four and one-half years.

HIS TECHNIQUE NEEDS IMPROVING

Last Sunday afternoon he, like many others, was enjoying a respite from the heat by swimming at Elderberry Park at Niles.

That is to say he was enjoying it until he took that last dive.

His technique was one that would have to be described as a "belly-whopper" by the swimmin' hole set.

However, the worst part was that he missed the pool.

MAMMOTH HOUSING TRACT AT DECOTO STILL UNCERTAIN

The proposal by six major development companies to construct 6,000 new homes between Decoto and Tennyson became further entangled in legal webs during the past week.

The original maps of the proposed mammoth housing tract were rejected by the Alameda County Planning Commission on the basis that the subdividers did not provide adequate facilities to care for run-off waters.

The subdividers appealed their case to the Board of Supervisors but two meetings with that body failed to result in a solution to the problem.

At Tuesday's meeting of the Supervisors the subdividers withdrew their appeal and announced that they would submit a new map to the Planning Commission at its next meeting.

According to Supervisor Chester E. Stanley, the new map will include a complete revision of the street system in the proposed tract.

Stanley added that the companies have tentatively agreed to finance a $300,000 canal to carry the flood waters from the Niles-Hayward highway into San Francisco Bay. The Supervisors have stipulated that they will grant certain rights-of-way and provide crossings over the 80-foot-wide channel.

A HEALTHY PLACE

Washington Township was a healthy place during the past week with no new cases of contagious diseases reported by the Alameda County Health Department.

JAMES O'CONNOR, NEWARK DRUGGIST, TAKEN BY DEATH

James Peter O'Connor, 41, prominent Newark druggist, died from a shotgun blast at his home in Niles late Wednesday night or early Thursday morning.

O'Connor and his wife, Mrs. Lillian O'Connor, had owned and operated the Newark Pharmacy for the past three years. Prior to that he had been employed as a pharmacist at the Whitaker Pharmacy in Niles.

He failed to return home from his store Wednesday evening and a search was conducted unsuccessfully by the family.

About 11 a.m. Thursday, Victor Dias, a gardner at the F. J. Cesari home on Mission Highway, where the O'Connors made their home, found the body behind the barn. A shotgun was beside the body.

O'Connor was a native of San Francisco and a veteran of World War II.

Funeral arrangements are pending at the Berge Mortuary Company in Niles.

1951-52 SCHOOL SCHEDULES SET

The schedules for the 1951-52 school terms of the schools of Washington Township were announced this week and revealed that local students and teachers will enjoy 22 days of vacation during the year.

The school term opens with a holiday on Monday, September 10, with instruction to get under way on Tuesday.

The longest vacationless stretch for the students will be from the day school opens until November 21 when school will adjourn on Wednesday, November 21, for Thanksgiving and a teachers' institute.

The schools will close down on Friday, December 21, for the annual 10-day vacation for Christmas and New Years, reopening on January 7, 1952.

On Tuesday, February 12, the students will observe Lincoln's birthday and on Friday, February 22, will have a vacation in observance of Washington's birthday.

The schools will be closed the week of April 7-11 for Easter vacation.

Friday, May 30, Memorial Day, will be the final vacation from the classrooms until school closes on Friday, June 13.

FRIENDLY FEUDIN' IN ARMY CAMP IN JAPAN

'OKIES' AND CALIFORNIANS FUSS, FIGHT

Corporal Leon Vieux, son of Mrs. Leon Vieux of Niles, gets what laughs he can out of his army life in Japan. He saw the following article in "Stars and Stripes," thought his mother would appreciate it, sent it on to her, and she, in turn, thought some of the local readers might be amused by it. It is herewith printed below.

SENDAI, Japan.—The "Oakies" and the Californians, long a feuding duo, drew a new battle line this week in a country far from their native states.

They reopened their friendly fuss in the country of Japan.

THE STAGE was set a few months ago when southern California's 40th Infantry Division and Oklahoma's 45th Infantry Division arrived here.

The Californians claimed that the 45th's intelligence section learned of the 40th's departure for the Far East and immediately made plans to follow.

"They must have figured we'd worn out our west coast soil and were moving to more fertile territory," explained Pfc. Alex Gastelunm, Los Angeles.

"The shame of it!" growled Sgt. Henry Porris, another Angeleno. "Can't even shake those guys after a five thousand mile boat ride."

Things were bad enough. But this week it was discovered that a few Oklahomans had actually infiltrated into southern California's own 40th.

One sad Sooner sighted in the California division, Pfc. Andrew Arnold, Oklahoma City, quickly stepped to the defense of his native state.

"Why, we grow more wheat in one county in Oklahoma that you guys grow in your whole darn state," he boasted.

"—And more prairie dogs, too," retorted Sgt. George Stoddard, Van Nuys, Calif. "Now let's talk about oranges, beautiful women and beaches."

One misdirected Oklahoma City youth, Pfc. John McCalnan, rushed to Arnold's rescue. "Now slow down there, podner," cautioned McCalnan. "I can count on the fingers of one hand the number of native Californians here in the 40th. Why, there are more Texans in this outfit than Californians."

The mention of Lone Star staters made both sides forget their fracas, and temporarily turned torrid tempers toward Texas.

"We prune pickers gotta stick together," admitted Cpl. Thomas Allbright, Tulsa, "to keep the 40th from turning into an overseas version of the Texas Rangers." "Right," agreed Cpl. Victor Cuccia, Alhambra, Calif. "We're glad to have you Oklahomans on our side anytime."

Pvt. Harold Leary, a native of Birmingham, Ala., took his turn with the peace pipe:

"I fought with Oklahoma's 45th in Italy during World War II. Now I'm here with the 40th. Both had crack outfits then, and both are looking mighty sharp once again.

Harvest of Apricots Begins; Record Prices

The apricot harvest is expected to get into full swing here Monday and the outlook is for one of the best seasons in many years for the growers.

Growers are contracting for the sale of their apricots at from $115 to $120 per ton, an increase of more than 50 per cent over last season.

The increase is accounted for by the fact that there is very little carry-over of last year's pack and the yield this year is expected to be lighter than last season.

Officers of the Farm Bureau Federation have predicted that processors will want all the apricots the local growers want to sell.

The F. E. Booth Cannery at Centerville is expected to begin its annual packing run on Monday and the Alaco Preserving Company at Decoto has announced that production will get under way on Tuesday.

The Schuckl Company cannery at Niles will not can apricots but will shift from cherries to peaches the first of next month.

The labor supply appears to be adequate, according to preliminary estimates of growers, packers and employment department representatives.

Growers were reported to be offering from 12 to 15 cents per bucket for pickers, only slightly more than the 12 cents paid last year.

Biggest headache of the harvest season appears to be the location of adequate housing for the itinerant workers.

LOCALITES HAVE ROLES IN PAGEANT

But don't be deceived! They are only playing a part.

These men, in response to a plea from Mrs. Roland Bendel, president of the Washington Township Historical Society, to take part in the scene of the Hayward Pageant which depicts the founding of Mission San Jose, have agreed to play the part of padres in the pageant. They are Paul Power, Harry Cesari, Walter Connolly, Franklin Brown, Leroy Brown, Bain Leask, David Leask, L. Van Buskirk, E. C. Parks, Roland Bendel, E D. Bristow, and Gonzales Paniagua.

The pageant will be presented from July 19 through July 22.

Final rehearsal for the episode in which the localites take part will be held tonight (Friday) at Washington Union High School at 8 o'clock.

Others from here who will appear in the pageant are Mrs. Henry May, who will play the part of Dona Peralta, and Ida Paniagua, who will be seen in several solo dance numbers.

FOUR INJURED IN WEEK-END CRASHES

Four persons received minor injuries in the township over the week-end in two automobile accidents.

Last Friday evening two San Francisco men, Ivan Parker, 651 Bush Street, and Arthur Nemetz, 19 Delmar Street, suffered lacerations when their auto collided with a truck on the Mission San Jose-Warm Springs highway.

Early Sunday morning Amelia James, 436 C Street, Hayward, suffered lacerations when their car ran into a pole at the corner of Thornton and Mulberry Street in Newark.

ONE-POUND INFANT HAS FIGHTING CHANCE

A one-pound, 11 ounce baby girl, born to Mr and Mrs. George Emerson (Betty Denton) last Friday, has a fighting chance for survival, according to a last-minute report to The Register.

The infant, born two months prematurely, is in an incubator in Children's Hospital in Oakland.

Mr. and Mrs. Emerson are now living in Hayward. They have another child, a boy.

HIGH SCHOOL SETS $397,176 BUDGET FOR COMING YEAR

A tentative budget of $397,176 to operate Washington Union High School for the 1951-52 school term has been voted by the Board of Trustees and submitted to county officials for approval.

Although the budget total is $63,953 under last year's total, the new budget calls for increases in nearly all categories of school operation.

Last year's budget was higher because it carried the majority of the expense of the new business education annex now under construction at the school.

J. V. Goold, district superintendent, said this week that no change in the tax rate is expected this year.

The new budget lists adminisration expense at $13,230. Instruction cost, including teachers' salaries, climbed from $148,000 last year to $184,652 for the coming term.

Operation and maintenance of the school plant is expected to cost $79,216 for the coming year.

The trustees estimated in their proposed budget that the transportation of students would cost $14,745 during the 1951-52 term.

Capital outlay for the improvement of grounds, buildings and equipment is expected to run $72,000, a sizeable drop from the $97,787 set aside under the same category last year.

BLOOD DONORS NEEDED MONDAY

Mrs. W. L. McWhirter, blood donor chairman for the township has issued an urgent appeal for blood donors for the next visit of the mobile unit on Monday.

Mrs. McWhirter asserted that despite the armistice in the offing there is still a great need for blood for the boys over there.

Because last month's visit of the mobile unit was cancelled as a result of lack of response of donors, it is hoped that this month's quota will more than be met.

Any person willing to donate blood should go to the Veterans Memorial Building, Niles, Monday between the hours of 9:30 a.m. and 3 p.m.

A new ruling requires that donors must weigh at least 115 pounds instead of 112 as was formerly the case.

DISTRICT STUDIES FLUORIDATION PLAN

The equipment necessary for the fluoridation of the water distributed by the Alameda County Water District would exceed $7,596 it was revealed this week by M. P. Whitfield, assistant general manager of the district's office in Centerville.

In a letter to the Centerville Chamber of Commerce, in reply to their endorsement of the fluoridation plan, Whitfield stated that the $7,596 was a quotation from one manufacturer and added that the district is now in the process of obtaining additional estimates of equipment costs from other manufacturers.

In the letter he pointed out that the figure does not include costs for installation, fittings and materials, equipment enclosures, chemicals, maintenance and service, laboratory tests and control, etc.

In the district's resolution to investigate the proposal it was stated "the matter of fluoridation of the district's domestic water supply be given serious consideration, being aware that it would be necessary to make installations at several sources of our water supply."

CIVIL DEFENSE LEADERS OUTLINE EMERGENCY PLANS

Any enemy air strikes in the East Bay critical target area would find Southern Alameda County civil defense leaders ready to activate emergency plans and mutual aid programs now being charted by Region Three coordinators.

Sheriff H. P. (Jack) Gleason, coordinator for Operation Area 8 (Southern Alameda County), said that area representatives are attending a series of regional meetings designed to blueprint action in event of extreme emergency.

ESTIMATE TARGETS

All disaster plans, Gleason said, are based on State Civil Defense Plan "A," which assumes that an air strike would be made at 21st Street and Broadway, Oakland, at 12 noon on a weekday, effecting maximum damage and casualties.

The plan also assumes that a simultaneous air attack would be made on San Francisco at Pine and Montgomery in the financial district, and that the Bay Bridge has been rendered unusable to traffic.

Sheriff Gleason, who is Region 3 Law Enforcement coordinator, conducted the first operational meeting recently at his office in the county court house, Oakland. Police and traffic officials attending presented inventories of personnel and equipment, and estimated the probable damage and casualties to their departments in case of attack. A regional operational plan is now being written and will be considered at future meetings, Gleason said.

STATE AID ASKED

Successive meetings for communications officers, and the traffic control group were held last week. The communications group, according to Captain C. Brower McMurphy of the sheriff's department, and county civil defense communications chief, voted to ask the state to provide equipment to establish radio communications between the regional control center and all area control centers. This would provide an emergency chain of radio communication among all control centers.

The FARMERS CORNER

by RALPH H. TAYLOR

Executive Secretary Agricultural Council of California

The debate echoing throughout the nation over public education ranges from scholarly dissertation on method to wholehearted approval or violent condemnation.

To most parents, in its simplest form, the question is simply: Is my child being well-grounded in the fundamentals, in understanding of the government and economic system under which we live; and is he being prepared to win his place in the world?

Significantly, Dr. C. C. Trillingham, noted California educator and Los Angeles County superintendent of Schools, sides with parents perturbed that schooling may be too much on the theoretical and too little on the practical side.

"Present school curriculum," Dr. Trillingham states, "does not put enough emphasis on the understanding and appreciation of the American economic system."

The doctor states that he believes California schools are doing a good job of developing well-rounded citizens who will be able to take hold and face the problems which may confront them.

He declares, however: "Most of the difficulties in public education today come from the need for mass training. We face the problem of securing housing, competent teachers and adequate materials for an ever increasing population.

"I don't believe that an additional course of study should be instituted in the crowded curriculum to deal with the American economic system," he said. "However, I think more stress on the American free enterprise system and the part it has played in building our country can be 'bootlegged' into subjects already being taught."

At the present time, Dr. Trillingham stated, "the school curriculum is based on four fundamentals: civic responsibility through understanding of the Constitution, free economic enterprise, universal education and Christian school system.

It would be safe to assume, however, that inauguration of his idea will be or can be put into practice throughout the California theme of the teaching of a better appreciation for United States free enterprise would go a long way toward solving one educational problem. It should go a way, too, toward easing debate over public education as it exists today—not to mention the good it would do in turning out citizens with a basic conception of the economic fundamentals which built this nation.

Thinking Things Over : : :

By VIVIAN BATMAN

I'll be glad when the County Fair is over. I am tired of looking at pigs and other animals.

We'd walk up one row of pig pens and down the other.

"Come look at this one!" my husband would say excitedly. And I'd rush over to where he was peering down in apparent enchantment, and I'd think, "Maybe this one will be different."

But it was just exactly the same as all the other pigs, as far as I could see. Just a great big fat, lazy creature, with not enough manners to even get up and look at you, just lying there in happy abandon, probably unable to get up because of his avoirdupois.

However, we played no favorites. We saw every single, solitary pig, while I tried desperately to say something appropriate and kindly about each one. I started with, "Now, there's a beauty, so nice and fat, and well-groomed," but by the time I got down to the end of the row all I could think of to say as I leaned over the pen was, "Ugh!"

From there we went to see the race horses, which looked unhappy and wistful as their heads protruded from their stalls. Since they all looked so unhappy, I decided that they all must have lost their race that day

With this in mind, I adopted an air of sympathy toward one anemic-looking horse and patted him on the forehead. "You poor thing," I said consolingly, "maybe you'll win tomorrow." I was repaid for this show of consideration by a nip on the arm and a glare of hatred from his anemic brown eyes.

For the remainder of the tour of the stables I contented myself with a mere nod at each horse and a dutiful, "Yes, he is" every time my husband would say, "Isn't he a beauty," which remark he would make about every horse.

Almost at the end of this "Isn't he a beauty" tour I had the sudden impulse to ride one of these horses.

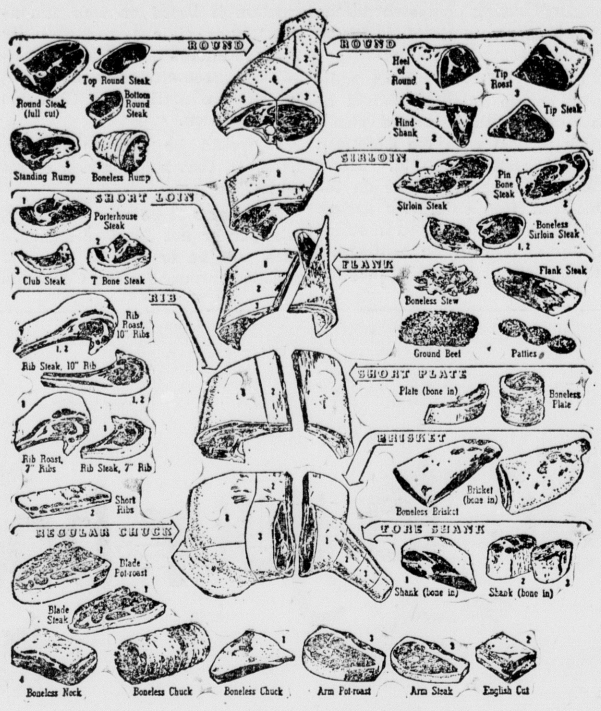
"Just think what a thrill it would be to go careening around the race track on one of these horses!" I said excitedly. "Nobody's looking. Which one shall I ride?"

This was not such a dumb thing to say. My husband looked distraught. "Look, let's get out of here," he said, grabbing me by the arm.

That is how we got away from the horses.

It was nice getting home again where there are no animals except nice quiet gophers, which nobody—even the gophers themselves—expects you to say, "Isn't he a beauty!" about.

HOMEMAKER'S GUIDE TO BEEF CUTS



PRIMAL (WHOLESALE) BEEF CUTS AND THE RETAIL CUTS MADE FROM EACH

Mrs. America, This chart shows you by name and shape each of the standard cuts of beef made to be sold at retail from the wholesale cuts in the center of the chart. Each of these beef cuts is subject to dollar-and-cents price ceilings at your retail meat shop. Your retailer has been provided with the dollar-and-cents ceiling prices for the pricing zone in which you live. You can ask to see these prices. By June 18 ceiling prices must be posted by your butcher. Lower beef prices will be effective on August 1 and another reduction will be effective on October 1.

HER LUCKY DAY

"Who is the king of swat?"

This was the question posed to Mrs. Glen Mohn of Niles by a man at her door, and because she replied promptly, "Babe Ruth," she became the astonished possessor of a Westinghouse grill and waffle iron.

That wasn't all Mrs. Mohn had to do, however, to win the unexpected prize. She also had to have on hand a box—either full or empty—of a certain brand of washing powder.

"Usually I don't use that kind of soap," said Mrs. Mohn, "but I was lucky enough to have a box of it at that time."

The lucky lady, still overwhelmed by her unexpected good fortune, said it is the first thing she ever won.

Council No. 14 and U.P.E.C. Council No. 54, all of Newark.

He was the husband of Mary I. Menezes; father of Victoria, John, Lewis and Marilyn June Menezes, all of Newark, and Mrs. Mary Lemar of Sausalito.

WORLD FAMOUS STAR AT GOLDEN GATE

Josephine Baker, the St. Louis-born American Chanteuse, who, after 25 fabulous years in Europe, has swooped triumphantly back to her native land, and winds up her dazzling tour of America with her engagement at the Golden Theater in San Francisco beginning Thursday, July 19.

One of the most famous expatriates of this century, Josephine Baker, daughter of a Negro washerwoman, began her sensational career in Paris night clubs in the mid-twenties by singing dressed only in a girdle of bananas and dancing the Charleston and the Black Bottom. Almost immediately she was tabbed by the Famous Folies Bergere and has appeared in 14 editions of the revue since then.

A familiar marquee name in such world capitols besides Paris, as Budapest, Vienna, London, Cairo and Rio de Janiero, this is her first extended tour of the U.S.A.

The exciting show-stopper has a repertory of songs in French, English, Spanish, Portuguese and Italian. She dances in a manner which, according to Variety, magazine of show business, "needs no translation."

Picture feature on the same bill is United Artists' "The Man with My Face," by Samuel W. Taylor. Mr. Taylor spoke to the Niles Rotary Club recently.

MISSION SAN JOSE NEWS

By LOIS BOTTENBERG

PROUD AGAIN

We are proud again this year because another of our ladies became president of Betsy Ross Parlor, Native Sons of the Golden West No. 238, in Centerville, and will be officially installed on Wednesday, July 18 at Parish Hall.

Lois Bottenberg

She is Mrs. Adeline Garcia and she is replacing Mrs. Hortense Cunha who is also a resident of Mission San Jose.

Other officers elected at the last meeting of the Betsy Ross Parlor were: Evelyn Peixotto, first vice-president; Evelyn Garcia, second vice-president; Edna Azevedo, third vice-president; Barbara Ponti, recording secretary; Martha Faria, financial secretary; Matilda Enos, treasurer; Elsie Amaral, marshal; Grace Vieth, Rose Furtado and Mae Smith, trustees; Mary Dutra and Mamie Perry, sentinels; and Regina Schneider, organist.

Betty Andrade, also of the Mission will be chairman of the evening, assisted by Josephine Chambers and Irma Vargas of the Mission, and Evelyn Garcia of Irvington. Mamie Perry is in charge of flowers and decorations.

CONGRATULATIONS

Congratulations to Mr. Nathan Click, our former principal, who has been employed by the Russell City School as an executive assistant with a secretary to do book work. He will assist in all athletic activities and in any other capacity where Principal Mette needs him. Mr. and Mrs. Click will live in the Mission for the time being.

IN THE HOSPITAL

We were sorry to learn that Mr. Eugene Olwell, owner of the Olwell Berry Farms here, has been confined at the Palo Alto Hospital for a few days following a major operation. Hurry back. We miss you around the post office.

VISITING

Mrs. Roe Hays and son, Stanley Garcia, motored to San Leandro the other evening to visit Stanley's, grandmother, Mrs. May Garcia Faria, and her husband, who has been quite ill.

SMILES GONE

Those happy smiles have left the faces of all the Santos gang for Mary Smith Scott has returned to her home in Pomona, but don't feel so badly for she will be back again before too long and next time with Jackie, her better half.

SORRY!

We are sorry to see Mrs. Ann Olsen carrying her arm around in a sling. She broke her wrist when she fell on the sidewalk by slipping on some spilled ice cream.

IN FORT ORD

Pvt. Donald Bettencourt was home over the week-end to visit his father, Mr. Frank Bettencourt. He is at Fort Ord. We haven't seen Cappy Cunha, son of Mr. and Mrs. Tom Cunha, for some time, but hear that his next move is to Camp Stoneman. Hope with all this peace talk that there is a HOLD order.

TO CAMP CONNELL

Rick Meyers and Charlie Schneider took off late Saturday evening and motored to Camp Connell in Calaveras County where they were disappointed in not finding Aunt Dora and Uncle Jack Connell, but nevertheless they stayed at the camp and went fishing for three days. Rick tells us this morning that after miles of treking and hours of climbing, they only got three little ones.

IN JAPAN

Mrs. Ann Mayock finally heard from her son, Pvt. Stoney Mayock, U. S. Marine, after many weeks of waiting. He had been in Tokyo Bay but not off the ship and finally did get shore leave at Yokohama where they were tied up at the time his letter was written.

THEME SONG

"Where, Oh Where, Has That Sunshine Gone" is certainly our theme song lately. For weeks we have not seen the sun till very late in the morning. Please can't some one order better weather. Our Chamber of Commerce will have to delete Sunny California from our ads if something isn't done soon.

THEY WON'T FORGET

Lots of us take vacations, but now that they are back I will write of the adventures of Mr. and Mrs. Howard Overacker and their son, Guy. Some time ago they left for the east to bring back a railroad switch engine. No kidding! Howard had been sent there by the steel mill where he is employed to bring back a new engine and all along the way he had to wait for other trains to pass and bring it home on any line he could get permission to travel on. Theo and Guy kept pace in the family car by going on sight seeing trips all over the country, for sometimes the engine only traveled 15 or 20 miles a day. Anyway they arrived home safe and sound with the engine coming in on its own (with Howard's help) and they say it is a trip they will never forget and one thoroughly enjoyed by all. Just traveling gypsies.

BACK TO SIERRAS

So long, Molly! Back to the Sierras for you and Dougie. That is Mrs. Mildred Steele and son, Douglas who are going home to Soda Springs after spending a month here in the Mission at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Santos of Ellsworth Street. She has been employed at Helen's Fountain while she was here, relieving Joe and Helen so they could take a few hours off several times a week.

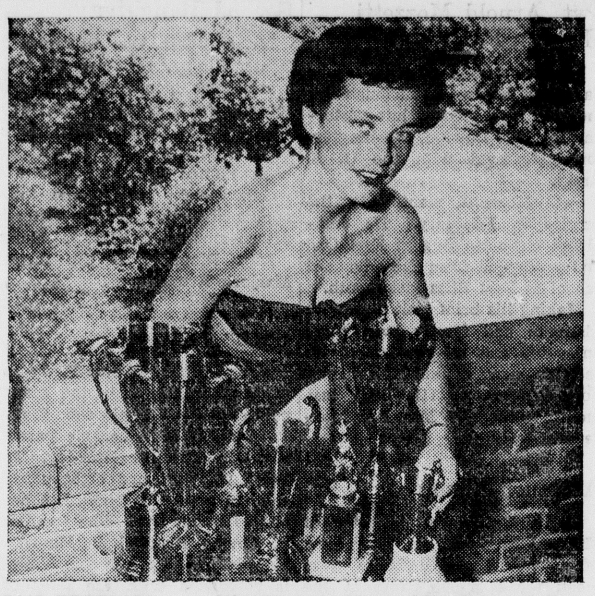
EVENTFUL DAY

Mrs. Ted Perreira took her little sidekick, Carl Thompson, to San Jose one day last week and her, not being used to the antics of an eight-year-old, surely knew she had been somewhere when she day was over. They shopped, dined out and, I hear, parked on the sidewalk for Carl's feet hurt in his new shoes.

BEGONIA SOCIETY MEETING THURSDAY

The new film entitled "How to Grow Beautiful Fuchsias and Begonias" will be shown at the meeting of the Southern Alameda County Branch of the American Begonia Society in the Hayward High School faculty cafeteria on Thursday, July 19, at 8 p.m.

The movie starts with the selection of the proper type of fuchsias and proceeds with proper care, re-potting, feeding and spraying to control insect and fungus pests. The second part on growing begonias shows step-by-step scenes from starting tubers, through rooting, transplanting and maturity. These scenes are vividly produced to give much helpful information to the begonia enthusiast.



FAIR TROPHIES . . . Miss Alameda County (Claudia Love, Dublin) inspects a portion of the countless tropies awarded prize-winners at the Alameda County Fair. The trophies and $50,000 in premium money were awarded state-wide exhibitors for livestock, poultry, floriculture, agriculture, horticulture and art displays. The Fair will close its 16-day run on Saturday evening.

'FINIAN'S RAINBOW' COMING JULY 16

When Gene Mann's production of "Finian's Rainbow" begins its two week playing schedule July 16 at the War Memorial Opera House in San Francisco, the cast will shine with the original Broadway principals, and a nucleus from the New York dancing and singing ensemble.

Ella Logan and Albert Sharpe are the two stars who recreate their same Broadway roles for "Finian's Rainbow" at the Opera House. Charles Davis, who also played the role of Og on Broadway and on tour, will also play his same whimsical role. Robert Pitkin and Eddie Bruce will also be seen in their original New York parts as Senator Billboard Rawkins and Buzz Collins.

Direction for the Gene Mann production of "Finian's Rainbow" is by Tom Browne Henry. Orchestra is again conducted by Jaye Rubanoff, while settings for the large revolving stages are designed by Ernst Fegte.

PROPER IRRIGATION HIGHLY IMPORTANT

Stunted plants, small fruit sizes, lowered quality and yields, and failure of flowers to set in home gardens are all signs that the plants may not be getting enough water. Since plants are from 70 to 90 per cent water, proper irrigation can mean success or failure to the home gardener.

Farm Advisor Lee Benson of the University of California Extension Service compares the soil to a reservoir which stores water for the plant. One cubic foot of light sandy soil will hold about one-half gallon of water per cubic foot. The plants depend upon periodic irrigations to keep the reservoir filled.

By the time vegetable crops are midway through the growing season, they root to a depth of at least two feet, Benson says. Several crops, such as tomatoes, melons and squash, may root six feet or more. Other crops are shallow rooting, such as onions, potatoes, radish and lettuce.

During the latter part of the growing season, Benson recommends wetting the soil in most of the root zone at each irrigation. Besides providing the moisture the plants need, the water will also release the fertilizer nutrients which the plants cannot absorb from dry soil. Within one day after irrigating the depth of water penetration can be determined by shoving a stout wire or welding rod into the area irrigated.

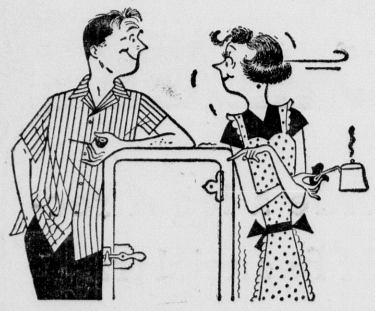
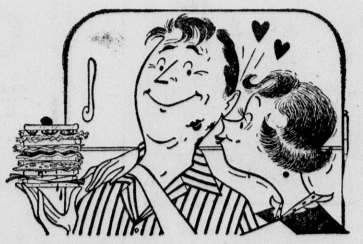
Why we retired our old refrigerator... and got a new one



"Families outgrow refrigerators!" Husband says wisely. And he's right. All too often a loyal but ancient model costs more to operate daily than a big, modern model with every convenience. "I'll buy a new refrigerator," agrees Husband, "if I can have the Old Timer for the rumpus room!"

"Look at the difference!" This modern 10-cubic-footer uses no more kitchen space than the Old Timer. Its shelves raise, lower, come out to make room for big items like watermelon. There's also ample room for milk and thrift-size soft drinks. Pop-up ice trays release 2 cubes or a trayful.

"That's not all!" A top-side freezing compartment stores enough frozen foods for a week, cuts down shopping trips, saves leftovers. Giant vegetable crispers and a meat storage unit let you buy thrifty "specials," plan meals ahead. A butter box and door shelves are other conveniences. Best of all, like most modern refrigerators, it defrosts itself!



"Now we know." The average home in this area can operate a fine new refrigerator for about 2½¢ a day. Even a refrigerator with its own freezing compartment, or a separate food freezer with 200-pound storage capacity, operates for only 3¢ a day. All these modern appliances save food, time, money. All use P. G. and E. bargain rates. See your dealer's new models now. The sooner the better.

WEDDING BELLS

Miss Ethel Mae Myers of Livermore and William Hashenberger Jr. of Niles were united in marriage Sunday, July 1, at the Village Church, the ceremony being performed by Rev. William Frederick, pastor.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Myers of Livermore. She graduated from the Green School and was a junior last year at the Livermore High School.

The son of Mr. and Mrs. William Hashenberger Sr. of Bogue, Kansas, the groom served six years in the navy and is in the employ of Pacific States Steel at Niles.

Miss Billie Fay Daniels was maid of honor and Miss Martha Sue Bland was the bridesmaid.

The bride wore white satin with long sleeves and fingertip veil. Her something borrowed was the gown, which belonged to Mrs. Richard Carter. The something old was a handkerchief that had belonged to the bride's mother. Gardenias comprised her bouquet.

The maid of honor wore aqua satin and the bridesmaid yellow taffeta with yellow net. The maid of honor's bouquet was of orchid gladiolas with orchid satin ribbon, the bridesmaid's peach gladiolas with yellow satin ribbon. The bride's mother wore navy blue lace with white accessories.

Francis Bunger was the best man and the guests were seated by J. B. Daniels, who lighted the candles. The bride was given away by her father. J. Harris sang "I Love You Truly" and "Because." Mrs. Ray Hanson played the wedding march.

The reception was held at the home of Rev. and Mrs. Frederick at four o'clock. Mrs. Wilma Parsons cut the wedding cake and punch was served by Mrs. Francis Bunger. The guest book was in charge of Mrs. Daniels. When they left for the Yosemite Valley on their wedding trip, the bride's going-away outfit was a green gabardine suit with all white accessories. They will make their home in Livermore.

AT THE FAIR

Enjoying the fair at Pleasanton last Sunday in spite of that terribly hot sun were Mr. and Mrs. Tony Escalona and sons, Anthony and Gerald. The latter of course enjoyed the midway the best of all. Also seen around the fair grounds were Mr. and Mrs. Eddie Paniagua, daughter Ida and her girl friend.

TO SANTA CRUZ

Motoring to Santa Cruz last Saturday to get their share of that wonderful sunshine were Mr. and Mrs. Lester Mederos and sons, Lee and Bobbie, and Mr. and Mrs. Earl Mederos and sons, Earl Jr. and Donald. The Mederos expected to take in the fair on Sunday also.

IT'S A GIRL!

It's another girl for Mr. and Mrs. Albert Andrade of Decoto Road. The little miss put in her appearance a week ago. She was especially greeted by her sisters, Judy and Geraldine.

FROM YOSEMITE

Cards have been arriving from those vacation folks at Yosemite. Yes, Marcella, Al Jr. and Mary Paniagua love that beautiful weather up there in the valley. They would like to stay there for more than two weeks, for the climate there seems to agree with all.

A BIT QUIET

MARRIED IN RENO

The cat's out of the bag revealing the news of the marriage of Adolph Sisneroz of Decoto and Rosie Hernandez of Irvington. The kids just revealed they have been married since March when the ceremony was performed in Reno. Best wishes to a long married life together.

SPANISH NOVELS

Mrs. Ethel Avilla, librarian of the Decoto Public Library, announces she now has 25 Spanish novels that may be of interest to many who have been inquiring about such types of books. Many of these novels are translated from English books, some are written by Spanish authors and still others have been originals written especially for the Spanish speaking people. Mrs. Avilla wishes many will go in and glance at these books.

MARRIAGE VOW

The former Georgia Davis of Alvarado and Bob Saucedo of Decoto repeated their marriage vows which they took several months before. The couple were united again at the Holy Rosary Church at seven o'clock, Saturday, July 7. They formerly resided in Hayward but now live at 931 Tenth Street, Decoto.

ON A PICNIC

The altar boys of the Holy Rosary Church, several mothers and some of the girls assisting at vacation school, motored to Santa Clara Tuesday for a picnic. Vacation school was not in session on that day.

CONGRATULATIONS!

Mrs. Louisa Borghi can add another birthday to that long list accumulating already. Last Monday she marked her 81st birthday. Although there wasn't any special celebration, she was remembered with some lovely cards and gifts. Many, many more birthdays to a wonderful person.

SUBSTITUTING

A familiar person around the Decoto library is Mrs. Lester Watkins who is holding down the fort while Librarian Ethel Avilla enjoys a two weeks' vacation. Ethel will return Monday.

ANOTHER BIRTHDAY

We won't reveal just how many years she celebrated but Isabel Escalona chalked off another birthday last Wednesday, July 11.

The Bearcats went to work early. They put together seven hits and two walks in the first inning to score eight times. They added three more in the fourth, four in the fifth, two in the seventh and one in the eighth.

Stan Roderick led the local club at bat with three singles and a triple in six tries. Hernandez and Marshall each got three for five.

WATER DISTRICT SEEKS SUPPLEMENT FOR LOCAL SUPPLY

The Alameda County Water District is making every endeavor to obtain an additional water supply for this area, according to a letter received this week by the Niles Chamber of Commerce from W. D. Patterson, president of the district.

The letter was in reply to a letter from the Chamber asking the possibility of this area benefitting from the Central Valley Water Project.

Patterson stated in his letter: "This district, I believe, has been the pioneer in the movement to obtain water as proposed by the new State Water Plan in its relation to this area.

"As a matter of fact, several years ago we had long conferences with the State Engineer and his assistants to see if there might not be possible means of getting such a supply without due cost.

"In connection with those conferences and under advice of the State Engineer, we made formal application to the State Water Resources Committee for water rights out of Old River.

"This application was granted and is now in full force. In other words, we have a prior and valid appropriation for any surplus water from Old River, and there is always a great surplus.

"We have conferred at considerable length with the officials of Santa Clara County to get their cooperation, and it appears that efforts are being made to get the cooperation of San Mateo County as well.

"These moves are important inasmuch as the cost of the structures to bring the water over the Altamont hills is such as to be entirely beyond the resources of our District.

"However, with the cooperation of Alameda and possibly San Benito Counties, with the two mentioned, and with such Federal and State aid as may be available, it appears that it may be an economically sound project.

"A study of this is being made but the State by a preliminary estimate sets the cost at about $31,000,000, so that it will take the combined efforts of all of the agencies to be benefitted."

NEW RESIDENTIAL TRACT OPENING AT NILES

A new residential subdivision is being opened near Niles this week by Harry Goodridge and Frank Rose.
